

January 24, 1955

ALLEN WELSH DULLES

Lawyer; born, Watertown, N. Y. 7 April 1893; son of Allen Macy and Edith (Foster) Dulles. B.A. Princeton University, 1914, M.A. 1916; LL.B., George Washington University, 1926; LL.D., Brown University, 1947; Temple University, 1952; married Clover Todd, 16 October 1920; children--Clover Todd, Joan, Allen Macy. Teacher, English, Allahabad, India, 1 year; entered U.S. Diplomatic Service, 1916; appointed secretary of legation 17 May 1916, and assigned to Vienna, Austria; transferred to Berne, Switzerland, 1917; with American Commission to Negotiate Peace, Paris, December, 1918; transferred to Berlin, Germany, 29 October 1919; assigned to Department of State, 1920; with American Commission, Constantinople, Turkey, October, 1920; Chief, Division of Near Eastern Affairs, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 14 April 1922 to 14 April 1926; delegate of the United States to International Conference on Arms Traffic, Geneva, Switzerland, 4 May - 17 June, 1925; member, American Delegation to Preparatory Disarmament Commission, Geneva, Switzerland, June-July, 1926; Legal adviser to American Delegation Three Power Naval Conference, Geneva, 20 June - 5 August, 1927; legal adviser to American Delegation, General Disarmament Conference, Geneva, 1932-33; resigned from Diplomatic Service, 15 October 1926 to take up practice of law with Sullivan and Cromwell, N. Y. City. Served during World War II with Office of Strategic Services. Appointed Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency, August, 1951. USA Decorations: Medal of Merit, also, Medal of Freedom, 1946; Phi Beta Kappa. Presbyterian. Author (with Hamilton Fish Armstrong) Can America Stay Neutral?, 1939; Germany's Underground, 1947. Home: 1308 29th Street, Washington 7, D.C. Office: 2430 E Street, N.W., Washington 25, D.C.